Mark Certonio

Mark loves terrific food. Mark loves great wine. And, oh, does Mark ever love to party!

So in 2009, it wasn't surprising that Mark Certonio, lover of all fine things, co-founded the Key West Food & Wine Festival.

Now in its 9th year, it's one of the hottest tickets in town and will be taking Key West by storm on Weds., January 24 through Sun., January 28.

It's also just one of the major events Mark plans to stage in 2018.

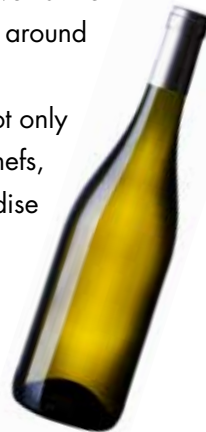

As Event Director for Dolce Events & Marketing, Mark Certonio, who has years of international experience in the hospitality business, likes having - pardon the pun - a full plate.

In addition to the upcoming Key West Food & Wine Festival, the multi-decade resident of Key West has also co-created two new Fall events: WineDine Key West, a month long celebration of food with specialized menus at discounted prices; and the Southernmost Spirits Fest, an annual cocktail, culinary and cultural extravaganza.

Given the Keys' reputation for fresh boat-to-table seafood and the all-star chefs who take it to new heights, it's no wonder that culinary events like these draw thousands of foodies from around the country to our tiny island chain.

Mark believes that the magic lies not only in the fabulous food and wonderful chefs, but in the place itself: a tropical paradise where you can enjoy fine dining in a decidedly unstuffy atmosphere.

Well said, lover boy - now let's get the party started!

Boho Chic

Antica Sartoria Italian Resort Wear

It was the small turquoise fish logo that first caught her eye. As Renée Schaefer and her husband Curtis Sigretto explored the small picturesque town of Positano on Italy's breathtaking Amalfi coast, they stumbled upon a small boutique called "Antica Sartoria."

The store's unique fish-shaped logo drew the couple inside where they discovered clothing that was very different from anything in the States.

Antica Sartoria's clothing designs were boho chic - fresh, inspiring and offering gorgeous statement-making pieces.

Established during a fashion revolution in the '60s when the famous "Moda Positano" style was born, all of Antica Sartoria's clothes are designed by Giacomo Cinque who so loved embroidery and blending patterns that he started his own line of clothing, incorporating daring color on light, airy fabrics.

Far from the ordinary, his dazzling collection is now displayed and sold in dozens of Antica Sartoria stores in Italy, along with retail locations in Germany, France and England.

While visiting Italy's Positano store, Renée and Curtis immediately fell in love with Giacomo's clothing and decided right then and there to bring his fabulous line of Italian resort wear to Florida.

They made arrangements to open a flagship U.S. store in Palm Beach where its "Positano Vibe" was an immediate hit. Since then, Renée and Curtis have opened additional locations in Key West, Naples and Delray Beach.

The new stores are just as popular as the original Palm Beach location. One of the reasons why is that designer Giacomo only creates a limited number of each item and once a design is sold out in Italy, the piece is retired. This keeps inventory fresh and allows shoppers to truly own rare pieces from Giacomo's coveted collections.

Needless to say, for the boutique's loyal fashionista following, owning one-of-a-kind clothing that not many others have makes it all the more boho chic.

In addition to the embroidered Indian gauze shirts, pearl-embellished jeans, caftans, bathing suits, shirt dresses and other "must haves," Antica Sartoria also carries lots of fun, colorful accessories and boho-inspired beach bags, along with a great selection of children's clothing.

Antica Sartoria in Key West is open daily from 9:30am - 9pm at 419A Duval St. across from La Concha Hotel (305-296-7617); in Palm Beach, Downtown at the Gardens on the first floor of Cobb Theater (561-799-1777); in Naples at Mercato Center next to Wine Loft (239-682-4006); and in Delray Beach at 512 E. Atlantic Avenue (561-501-7977).

FYI: Also coming soon to Miami and Sarasota!

Celebrating Old Key West

2nd Annual "I Love Stock Island" Festival

Who knew that what started as a slogan on a bumper sticker would later morph into one of the season's hottest events?

Now in its second year, the "I Love Stock Island" Festival, which takes place from Friday, December 8 through Sunday, December 10, encompasses three great days of the very best Stock Island has to offer.

There are all kinds of foodie events, wine, beer & rum pairings, history & art studio tours, live entertainment, water sports and the freshest, most delicious straight-off-the-boat seafood you'll ever taste. The festival is also a celebration of Stock Island's colorful and vibrant heritage. The charming little island has always been known as a tight-knit, working community - from its days as a freighter port with "stock" for the liveries and a landing for the Key West to Cuba ferry, to today's bustling fishing docks and live-aboard marinas - it's a rustic, eclectic place that reflects the way Key West once was.

"So, just where is Stock Island?" you may ask. This tiny parcel of land lies just over Cow Key Channel and is only a stone's throw from Key West.

Don't miss this chance to discover and explore one of our very special island communities.

But not here in the Keys and certainly not in Key West which celebrates the holidays in true island style.

As one of America's top tropical holiday destinations, Key West is a small town that is big on holiday cheer.

The annual Holiday Fest celebration draws visitors from around the world, who gladly trade in their hats and mittens for flip flops and aloe vera.

A traditional tree lighting ceremony, Classic Auto Show, Pet Pictures with Santa and the Lighting of the Harbor

On Saturday, December 2 at 7pm, the City stages its annual family-friendly hometown Holiday Parade followed by an array of other festive events throughout the month including art walks, decorated trolley rides, special concerts and more.

Bring your own nautical ornament and enjoy a free holiday cocktail.

Local Innkeepers throw open their doors for the Holiday Historic Inn Tours, where you can embark on a delightful tour of five decorated inns and also enjoy caroling and embrace the spirit of the season.

On Saturday, December 9, the Key West Bight dazzles with a magical nautical display of lights during the 27th Annual Schooner Wharf Bar Lighted Boat Parade which sets sail at 8pm.

The celebration wraps up on New Year's Eve with wild celebrations all over the island including the

#KeysStrong: Art After Irma

Resilience Abounds!

Hurricane Irma's merciless wrath on the Keys last September erased buildings, took lives and left hundreds of people homeless.

While the hurricane's wake of destruction will always be with us, and the cost to our delicate string of islands enormous, it's also an important reminder that once in a while, Mother Nature comes along to wipe the slate clean.

Still, signs of our resilience abound: an orchid blooming days after the storm; a 150 year old wooden house, built by shipwrights and standing tall; or neighbors helping each other clean up.

Creativity often works the same way; it returns with new focus after a test.

#KeysStrong: Art After Irma is The

Studios Of Key West's first post-Irma members show and invites you to reflect on the things that bend but don't break, the things that last, and the things that really matter.

This thought-provoking exhibit opens on Thurs., Dec. 7 from 6 - 8pm and will be on view through Friday, December 29 at Sanger Gallery in The Studios Of Key West, 522 Eaton St., Key West. Info: 305-296-0458; tskw.org.

FLORIDA KEYS ARTISTS RESPOND TO HURRICANE IRMA

Irma was a reminder that the cost of our delicate string of islands is the knowledge that nature comes along once in a while to wipe the slate clean. Still, signs of our resilience abound: an orchid blooming days after the storm; a 150 year old wooden house, built by shipwrights and standing tall; or neighbors helping each other clean up. Creativity often works the same way; it returns with new focus after a test. Neary one hundred Florida Keys artists reflect on the things that bend but don't break, the things that last, and the things that matter.

 Everything is made-to-order with really fresh ingredients and the hand-tossed pizza pies, which are available with a huge choice of traditional toppings, are some of the best you'll ever eat. Tiki Chic

Snook's Bayside

Key Largo: Keep your eyes peeled when you head north on the Overseas Highway in Key Largo because this bayside "Shangri-La" is easy to miss.

Tucked down a hidden lane under the tropical balm, Snook's Bayside is the kind of place conjured up by the Beach Boys in their iconic hit song, "Kokomo."

A dramatic chandeliered Grand Tiki sets the stage for tropical open-air dining that includes terrific island-inspired fare like Pistachio-Encrusted Yellowtail with mango salsa and chili beurre blanc; Lobster & Shrimp Cakes drizzled with Thai sweet chili and mango chutney; and the award-winning Crab-Stuffed Lobster broiled with scallops, shrimp, hogfish and colossal crab (Yowza!)

And then there's the view. Oh, that incredibly beautiful view.

Fronted by a sprawling 5,000 square foot patio with flickering torches and SOBE-style lounges, Snook's Grand Tiki is backdropped with an absolutely gorgeous, unobstructed panorama of the Bay.

It also provides a ringside seat to one of the best nightly Sunset Celebrations in the Keys which ceremoniously marks the day's end with a loud blow from Snook's ship's horn.

The celebration continues well after dark with live entertainment and dancing under the palms. What better place to kick back with a fresh whole coconut filled Snook's signature coconut rum punch and enjoy your own piece of paradise?

Famous Smoked Fish Dip from Porky's Bayside

Located in a funky waterfront Tiki hut just north of Marathon's famous 7 Mile Bridge, Porky's Bayside is notorious for the best barbecue in the Keys.

Locals and visitors have been flocking here since the early 1950s including such notables as Ernest Hemingway, Jimmy Hoffa and Elizabeth Taylor. But BBQ isn't the only big draw here. They also serve up terrific boat-to-table seafood fresh from their docks.

One of our favorite apps is their famous house smoked fish dip.

NEST

OK, so here you are, ready to snatch up your own little piece of Paradise. But here's the big question: "Which Key is right for you?"

Our 125 mile-long subtropical island chain consists of more than 1700 islands, many of which offer unique opportunities for investing in real estate.

Known as "The Dive Capital Of The World," Key Largo is the first and northernmost Key of the Florida Keys and although it's only about an hour's drive from South Florida's two major airports, this funky spot is a world away and a perfect Key to hang your flip flops.

Just south of Key Largo is Islamorada, aka "The Sportfishing Capital of The World" where backcountry sport fishing and saltwater fly fishing were pioneered. Quiet and upscale, it's also one of the Keys' top dining destinations.

Often referred to as "The Keys Boating & Family Destination," Marathon, boasts homey resorts, luxury accommodations, marinas and the conveniences of a modern community, including a 58-bed hospital, airport, golf course and plenty of shops while retaining the charm of its roots as a 19th-century fishing village.

Big Pine & The Lower Keys is the Keys' "Eco-Destination" and home to two national wildlife refuges including the National Key Deer Rescue - a safe haven for the miniature Key deer. Things are very laid-back here and it's a perfect place to live the "Old Keys" lifestyle.

Located closer to Cuba than to Miami, Key West is Florida's irreverent southernmost subtropical paradise where Gingerbread mansions share palm-studded streets with tin-roofed "Conch" houses. It's unique confluence of history, climate, natural beauty, cultural diversity, architecture and unabashed romantic appeal makes it a colorful place to set down roots.

Bankruptcy

May Not be Your Best Option.

If you are struggling financially due to a serious illness, job loss, foreclosure or for any other reason, Bankruptcy may not always be your best option.

Since 2008, we've helped our clients resolve over $10.0M in consumer and commercial debts without Bankruptcy and have also provided effective defense against:

- Foreclosure Litigation
- Medical Debts
- Consumer Debts
- Predatory Lending
- Violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act

If Bankruptcy should turn out to be your best option, The Law Offices of Shadrach G. Neiss can also act as a debt relief agency and help you file for protection under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.
