Renaissance Woman, Nance Frank

Meet Renaissance Woman,
Nance Frank.

As a master sailor who's raced around the world chasing Gold Cups, there's nothing Nance loves more than "burying the rail" in a rolling sea with the wind at her back.

Except for one other thing.

It's a passion that resonates deep within Nance Frank's soul: curating art and promoting local artists at her legendary Gallery on Greene in Key West's Historic Seaport.

The Key West native has been involved in the island's art scene as long as she can remember. In addition to operating The Gallery on Greene, Nance has authored several books on renowned Key West artist, Mario Sanchez and coordinated the donation of his work to the Smithsonian. She's also curated museums in Switzerland and Chile, and she's served as a founding board member for several local art associations and foundations.

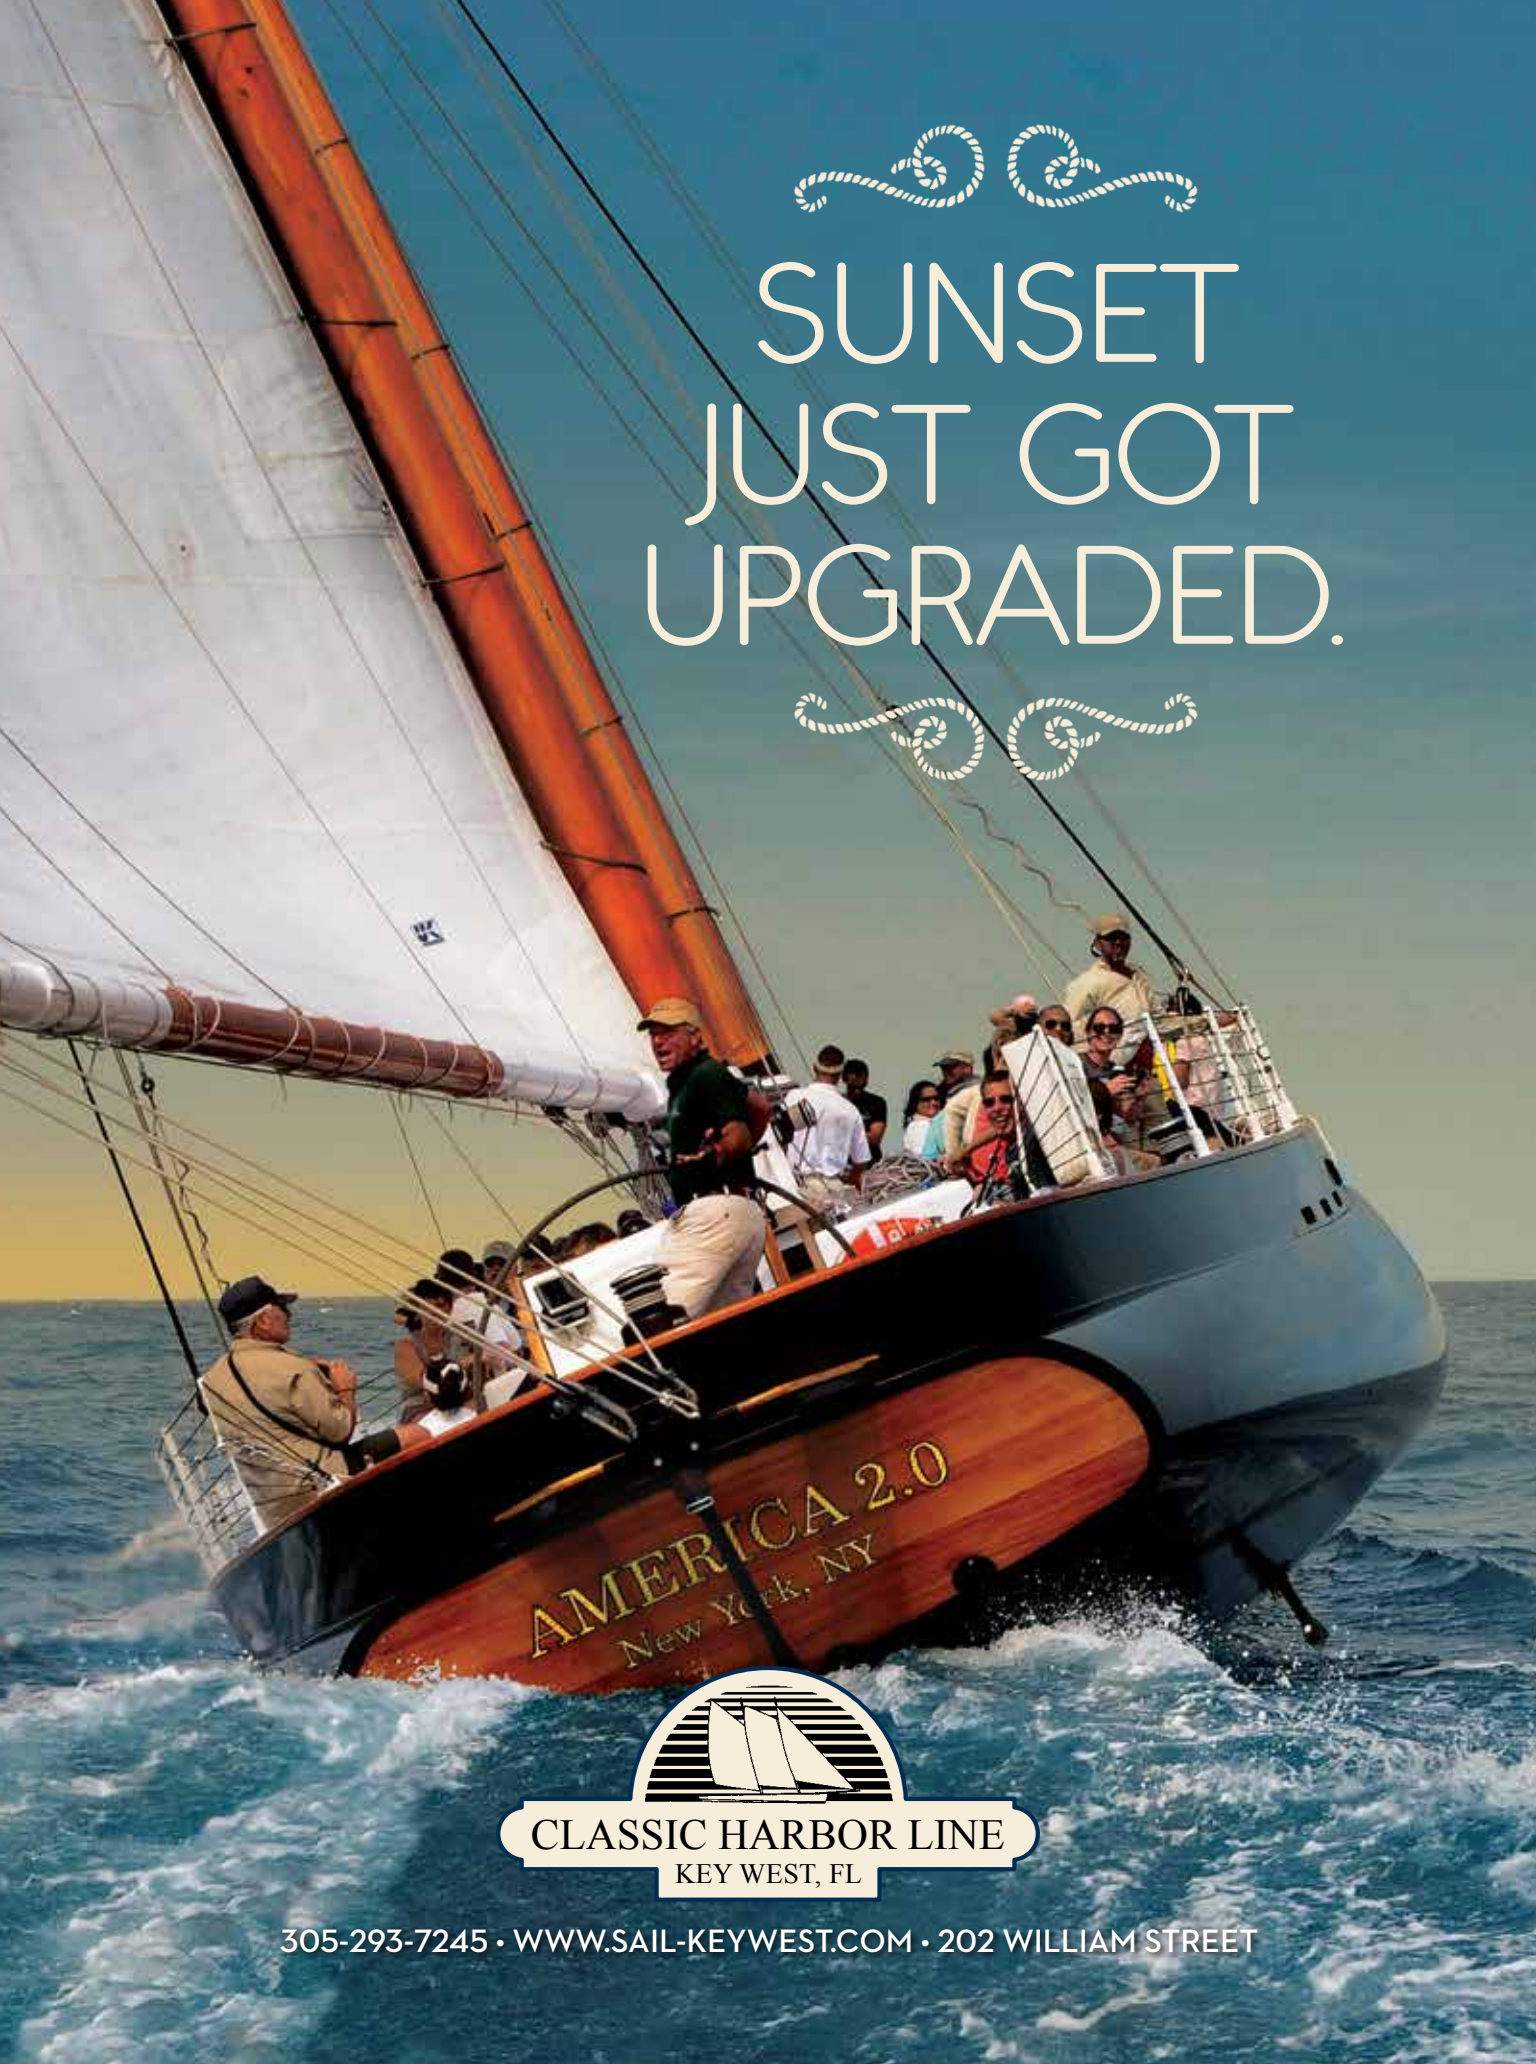

With an extensive collection of contemporary fine art by master artists, Pulitzer Prize winners, and Cuban greats, Gallery on Greene is considered to be one of Key West's most preeminent galleries.

Nance Frank's unbridled enthusiasm for curating local art that captures the heritage, culture and local charm of the Keys from 1934 to present day, provides a fantastic look into the minds of the most creative people who have lived in the Florida Keys.

If you'd like to meet one of them, stop in and see Nance Frank at the The Gallery on Greene, 606 Greene Street in Key West. She's one fascinating woman. Info 305-294-1669; galleryongreene.com

Celebrating Life

Master Artist Peter Vey

Like all of Peter Vey's work, "Journey to Paradise," celebrates life.

The exhibition, which opens on Friday, February 16 from 6 - 8pm and runs for three weeks at Key West's Gallery on Greene, is part of the gallery's 23rd-anniversary celebration.

Vey paints places that most other people only dream about.

Like Winslow Homer, one of the 19th century's foremost painters, he's inspired by the landscapes, waters, and colors of the region. His canvases are as dazzling as his surroundings and chronicle the simple pleasures of tropical living.

Using only an artist's palette knife, Vey lays down explosive colors that capture the bright, washed-out light of the islands. His lush vegetation, white sand beaches, breathtaking skies, and local architecture reflect the essence of the Florida Keys.

You can see 40 extraordinary works by the renowned artist at The Gallery on Greene, 600 Greene St, Key West. Info 305-294-1669; galleryongreene.com.

Feast Your Eyes On This Original Marathon Seafood Festival

If it's March, it must be time for the Original Marathon Seafood Festival!

Now In its 43rd year, this affordable foodie fair, which takes place on Saturday, March 9 and Sunday, March 10, celebrates the bounty of local fishermen with gourmet delicacies from the waters of the Florida Keys.

The 15,000 pounds (yes 15 THOUSAND pounds!) of fresh, succulent seafood served here is caught, cleaned and cooked by local commercial fishermen who also prepare bushels of oysters and bags of clams from the west coast of Florida.

Scores of community volunteers serve up generous plates during this "Fisherman-to-Fork" feast as local chefs showcase their talents using their Key-based recipes.

Of course Florida spiny lobster, with beans, bread, butter, and coleslaw is a festival staple, but you can also indulge in other favorite indigenous offerings like mahi-mahi, Key West pink shrimp, stone crab claws, smoked fish dip and much more.

Conch lovers can also have it every which way: as ceviche, chowder, golden-fried fritters or as bun-hugging "konkwurst" sausage.

There are lots of landlubber offerings, too, including hamburgers, hot dogs, sausages with sides of baked beans, coleslaw, hush puppies and French fries.

Popular Keys entertainers will be on hand, as well, along with more than 200 vendor booths, a Keys Artist Village, boat show and art exhibition.

Eat your heart out on Saturday from 10 am to 9 pm and on Sunday from 11 am to 5 pm at Marathon Community Park, MM 49, Bayside, Marathon.

37th Annual Conch Republic Days Celebration

Key West celebrates its "independence" every April during Conch Republic Days, a crazy 10-day birthday party which begins this year on Friday, April 19 and runs through Sunday, April 28.

Now in its 37th year, the celebration commemorates the Keys' infamous "Day of Secession" from the United States which occurred on April 23, 1982 following a U.S. Border Patrol blockade of the Keys. Designed to ferret out smugglers, the blockade only served to derail the region's emerging tourism-based economy and threatened the livelihood of Keys residents.

In protest, Key West staged a ceremonial secession, declared war on the mother country, surrendered 60 seconds later and then demanded one billion dollars in foreign aid.

The publicity stunt may have been done in jest, but it worked.

The US Border Patrol suspended its controversial checkpoints and the "Conch Republic" was born. Today the Conch Republic continues to flourish with residents proudly flying Conch Republic flags, carrying Conch Republic passports and celebrating their eccentric spirit with a birthday party like no other.

This year's celebration kicks off with an Opening Party and Conch Shell Blowing Contest at Schooner Wharf Bar on Friday, April 19 and continues with a slew of other fun happenings including a Tall Ship Sea Battle, Red Ribbon Bed Race down Duval St, a Pirates Ball & Pig Roast, Parade and a whole lot more.

Human Powered Art

4th Annual Papiro Kinetic Sculpture Parade

Artists, builders, assemblers, and aficionados of the wild and wacky are busily preparing for the 4th Annual Papiro Kinetic Sculpture and Art Bike Parade which takes place in Key West on Saturday, May 4 at 5 pm.

Spearheaded by Key West's Art & Historical Society, the parade includes colorful sculptural floats, tricycles with exotically costumed riders, fantastically decorated bicycles and other moving works of art — all powered by human effort alone.

The weekend-long event, which kicks off on Friday, May 3 and runs through Sunday, May 5, honors Key Largo's "renegade artist," the late Stanley Papiro, who created whimsical sculptures out of discarded car parts, appliances, and other objects.

The parade, accompanied by a Grand Marshal and marching band, starts at the Custom House Museum on Front Street, winds its way over to Duval Street and wraps up with a post-parade party and live concert at the Key West Amphitheater.

But the end of the parade doesn't mean the end of the art-filled week-end. Floats and other parade creations will be moved to Fort East Martello Museum, where a special display will be staged until 7 pm on Saturday and from 9:30 am to 4:30 pm on Sunday.

A Tour-de-Force One Man Show

Randy Roberts Live!

With laser-focused intensity and a dollop of Borscht Belt Humor, consummate entertainer, Randy Roberts is a tour-de-force when he takes to the stage at Key West's legendary Crystal Room Cabaret at La Te Da Hotel.

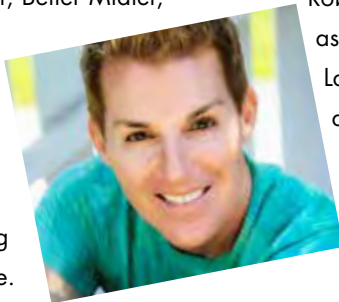

Renowned for his uncanny impersonations of Cher, Better Midler, Mae West, and other larger-than-life ladies, Roberts is spot-on with every illusion he creates.

And we're not taking about lip-synching here.

Under the layers of mascara and sequins is a gorgeous voice that earned him a coveted spot on America's Got Talent and regularly puts him in the spotlight with The Key West Pops, South Florida Symphony and other acclaimed orchestras.

During his live, multi-media cabaret show, Roberts dazzles as "Consuela, the Latin Show Girl" and is tantalizing when he slips into his self-created character - a combination of Ann-Margaret, Liza Minnelli and Joan Rivers, all rolled into one powerhouse performer.

If you want to see an amazing female illusionist, Randy Roberts Live! is a fantastic show you won't want to miss. As Howard Stern said on America's Got Talent, "He's got the whole package!"

You can catch this terrific show at La Te Da's Crystal Room Cabaret, 1125 Duval St., Key West. Tickets and info: 305-296-6706; lateda.com.

Master of Illusion

Christopher Peterson

Lady GaGa, Madonna, Lucille Ball, Tina Turner, Katherine Hepburn - you never know who will show up when master female illusionist Christopher Peterson takes to the stage.

Often compared to Jim Baily, a legendary master of impersonations, Christopher Peterson is, without a doubt, one of North America's foremost female impersonators - both visually and vocally.

His hit show, EYECONS, is "All Live," no lip synch, and it's one of the hottest tickets in town. You'll be amazed by the way he transforms himself into more than a dozen famous women right before your very eyes with the help of his "magic closet."

With impeccable comic timing and impressive singing, Peterson's one man, many women, extravaganza landed him a leading role as Bette Davis in the original production of "Bitchslap" at Key West's Waterfront Playhouse and as Lucille Ball in the movie "Rat Race"

Photos: Carolyn Cooper

with Cuba Gooding, Jr.

Never static, Peterson is continuously introducing new characters to his outstanding EYECONS show which is now on stage in the Crystal Room Cabaret at La Te Da, 1125 Duval Street in Key West. Tickets and info: 305-296-6706; lateda.com

Key West's Annual Wreckers Cup Race Series

Some of Key West's biggest Blowhards raise their sheets to the wind for Schooner Wharf Bar's legendary Wrecker's Cup Race Series - a raucous 7-mile sail to nearby Sand Key.

If you missed the first leg of this year's "Day of Wreckoning" in January, you could still catch the second and third legs on Sunday, February 24 and Sunday, March 24. The series wraps up with a fourth and final leg on Sunday, April 28.

Local boats compete for bragging rights in five different classes (Classic, Schooner, Multi-hull, Monohulled over 30' and Monohulled under 30') and reenact a time in Key West history when wreckers raced to a disabled ship, rescued the crew and then claimed the cargo.

Of course, in this anything-but-serious race, there is nothing to rescue at Sand Key except bruised egos from the last race.

During the Post-Race Pusser's Rum Awards Party at Schooner Wharf Bar, winners receive a bottle of Pusser's Rum Punch and a souvenir rum mug as well as pseudo-antique Victory Trophies, Schooner Wharf Bar Tabs, and official Wrecker's Race Tee-Shirts.

Even if you're not a sailor, you can still share the madness from the Schooner Wharf Bar located at the foot of William Street in Key West's Historic Seaport.

Races kick off at 1pm, but there's a whole lot of pre-race partying at Schooner Wharf. Info: 305-292-3302; schoonerwharf.com.

Zen In Key West

Key West Tropical Forest & Botanical Garden

Just a few miles from Old Town Key West yet far away from the maddening crowds of Duval Street, is a place where nature lovers and bird watchers can totally chill.

Here you'll find the historical Key West Tropical Forest & Botanical Garden: the only frost-free sub-tropical native botanical garden in the continental United States.

This lush, 15-acre "living museum" is home to many threatened and endangered species, beautiful flora and fauna, a native plant nursery and two one-acre butterfly habitats with over 23 discovered species.

Part arboretum and botanical garden, part wildlife refuge and education center, the Garden is a zen-like retreat where you can meander through a lush canopy of tropical trees and literally commune with nature.

Because two of the last remaining freshwater ponds in the Florida Keys are also located here, the Key West Tropical Forest & Botanical Garden is a major migratory stop for South American neotropical birds. Often herons, white-crowned pigeons, egrets, and many other water birds gather in the Garden's two wetland habitats nesting among dozens of freshwater turtles.

In addition to eight self-guided and cell phone tours, the Key West Tropical Forest & Botanical Garden also offers dozens of special events, classes, and workshops, as well as a fascinating speaker series.

On the third Saturday of every month, you can even purchase native, rare and endangered plants from 9 am-noon in the Garden's nursery.

Discover this special piece of paradise for yourself at 5210 College Rd, Stock Island/Key West. Open daily from 10am - 4pm. Info: 305-296-1504; keywest.garden.

We print. We plant.

For every edition we print, DESTINATION Florida Keys & Key West will plant a correlating number of Ponderosa Pines in South Dakota's Pine Ridge Native American Indian Reservation. Encompassing 3,468.85 square miles, and larger than Delaware and Rhode Island combined, it is the eighth largest reservation in the US.

As a global forestry partner with the international Print Relief initiative, we are committed to converting our paper footprint into actual trees.

Greening the landscape to combat climate change, land rights issue and poverty, while developing income opportunities are paramount to the Pine Ridge Project. With Print Relief, resources borrowed from the earth can be returned and multiplied after use. Through their verified reforestation process, there is a 100% net survival of the trees we plant.

Thanks for your support as we now help to reforest the Pine Ridge Native American Reservation... one print job at a time.

Swivel Your Hips & Feast Like A King

Snooks Polynesian Luau & Pig Roast

Key Largo takes on a decidedly Polynesian twist when Snook's Bayside fires up the waterfront with its monthly Luau & Pig Roast.

With pulsating drums, beautiful hula girls and exciting fire knife dancers, the colorful tropical extravaganza is an action-packed, non-stop revue that will keep you jumpin' all night long.

But no Luau would be complete without an authentic pig roast where you can feast like a king on freshly roasted pork and a slew of delectable side dishes.

And that's just the half of it.

The party also includes henna tattooing, tarot card readings, face painting and local artisans showcasing their unique creations.

And then there's the view. Oh, that incredibly beautiful view.

Fronted by a sprawling 5,000 square foot patio with flickering torches and SOBE-style lounges, Snook's Bayside is backdropped with a gorgeous, unobstructed panorama of the Bay.

What better place to kick back with a fresh whole coconut filled Snook's signature coconut rum punch or one of their other craft cocktails and enjoy your own piece of paradise?

Snook's monthly Luau & Pig Roast kicks off at 6:30 pm on Sat, Feb. 17, Sat, March 24, Sat, April 21, and Sat, May 26. These festive and fun luaus always sell out fast so reservations are a must.

Pina Colada Shrimp with Pineapple Chipotle Dipping Sauce

The key to this tasty tropical dish is the pairing of the flavored balsamic vinegars with the infused chipotle olive oil. You can find these, along with all kinds of other fine imported olive oils, specialty oils and balsamic vinegars, at Olive Morada in Islamorada.

FOR THE DIPPING SAUCE:

- 3 Oz Olive Morada's Pineapple Balsamic Vinegar
- 3 Oz Olive Morada's Infused Chipotle Olive Oil
- 4 Oz Mayonnaise (may substitute sour cream or Greek yogurt)
- 1/2 Tbs Sugar

Emulsify all ingredients together, and chill

Put vegetable oil in a heavy bottom pan or fryer and heat 375°. Mix together all ingredients except for corn starch and shrimp, and whisk until smooth. Coat shrimp with corn starch and dip shrimp in batter until completely coated. Fry in oil for 3-5 minutes or until golden brown.

Serve Pina Colada Shrimp with dipping sauce, and enjoy!

FOR THE SHRIMP: PREPARATION

- 1.5 Lb. or 13-15 Shrimp (peeled and deveined, do not remove the tails)
- 8 oz. Rice Flour
- 1/4 Cup Shredded Coconut
- 1/2 Cup Olive Morada's Coconut Balsamic Vinegar
- 1/4 Cup Olive Morada's Pineapple Balsamic Vinegar
- 1/2 Cup sparkling water (must be cold)
- 4 Tbs Corn Starch for dusting
- Himalayan Pink Sea Salt and Ground Black Pepper, to taste
- Vegetable Oil for frying

You'll be amazed at how many delicious possibilities you can whip up in your kitchen using Olive Morada's line of fine imported olive oils, specialty oils and balsamic vinegars. Taste for yourself at their fun little shop located at 82245 Overseas Hwy in Islamorada. Info: 305-735-4375; olivemorada.com.

NEST

OK, so here you are, ready to snatch up your own little piece of Paradise. But here's the big question: "Which Key is right for you?"

Our 125 mile-long subtropical island chain consists of more than 1700 islands, many of which offer unique opportunities for investing in real estate.

Known as "The Dive Capital Of The World," Key Largo is the first and northernmost Key of the Florida Keys and although it's only about an hour's drive from South Florida's two major airports, this funky spot is a world away and a perfect Key to hang your flip flops.

Just south of Key Largo is Islamorada, aka "The Sportfishing Capital of The World" where backcountry sport fishing and saltwater fly fishing were pioneered. Quiet and upscale, it's also one of the Keys' top dining destinations.

Often referred to as "The Keys Boating & Family Destination," Marathon, boasts homey resorts, luxury accommodations, marinas and the conveniences of a modern community, airport, golf course and plenty of shops while retaining the charm of its roots as a 19th-century fishing village.

Big Pine & The Lower Keys is the Keys' "Eco-Destination" and home to two national wildlife refuges including the National Key Deer Rescue - a safe haven for the miniature Key deer. Things are very laid-back here and it's a perfect place to live the "Old Keys" lifestyle.

Located closer to Cuba than to Miami, Key West is Florida's irreverent southernmost subtropical paradise where Gingerbread mansions share palm-studded streets with tin-roofed "Conch" houses. It's unique confluence of history, climate, natural beauty, cultural diversity, architecture and unabashed romantic appeal makes it a colorful place to set down roots.

Living The Dream

Maison Residences Has It All

Anyone who is lucky enough to live in the Keys, is lucky enough. Anyone who is lucky enough to live in Islamorada, hit the jackpot.

Renowned for being the "Sportfishing Capital Of The World," this quaint village of islands boasts spectacular sunsets, fabulous restaurants and an eclectic collection of unique shops and boutiques.

It's no wonder that so many people dream of living here. If you're one of the lucky ones who are ready to turn the dream into reality, Maison Residences may just be the perfect spot to hang your flip flops.

Nestled at MM 80.5 in the heart of Islamorada, this gated resort-style community is comprised of 12 new pet-friendly homes in three beautiful waterfront buildings.

Each building has just two corner units per floor overlooking 350' of private white sand beach and a 155' community day dock flanked by an 85' oasis lagoon pool, tiki hut, jacuzzi and lush tropical landscaping.

There's also a full service marina right across the street which can accommodate boats of up to 35' for high and dry storage.

With all new construction designed in the style of Old Florida architecture, these sprawling 3 - 4 bedroom homes include 2500 - 3,000 square feet of living space, elegant top of the line finishes, hurricane impact windows, enclosed parking, private elevators and oversized outdoor terraces with expansive views of the open Atlantic.

What makes the terraces at Maison Residences especially attractive are the 9' sliders which enable you to extend the indoor living area and customize the space with a fireplace, BBQ, additional cabinets or other finishes.

One of our favorite built-ins is the special "smart" technology package. With endless programable features, you can control the lighting, air conditioning, music and more. It also provides remote access so you can always keep a watchful eye any time and from anywhere around the globe.

You can find Maison Residences Condominiums at 80639 Old Hwy. in Islamorada. Prices for these dream homes start at $2.2 million. Info: 305-240-0592; maisonresidences.com.
