Also first rate: the incredible Lobster BLT Soup loaded with bacon and lobster. YUM! Find it at MM 99.5, Oceanside at 1313 Ocean Bay Dr., Key Largo. 305-451-3782; keylargofisheries.com.

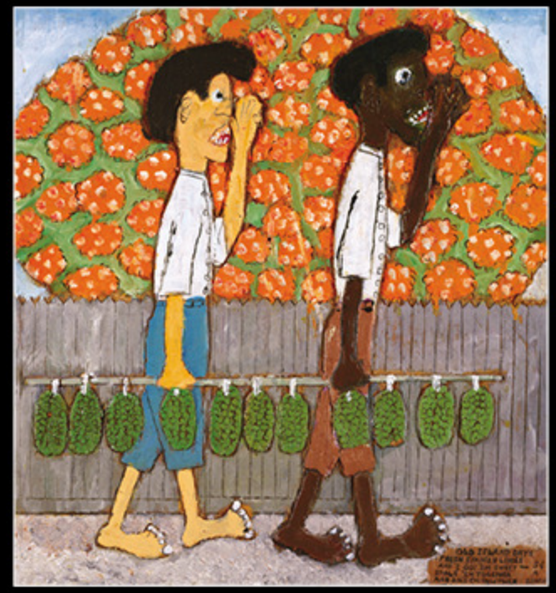
THE GALLERY ON GREENE

One Race, the Human Race



The Artists, Staff and Director of The Gallery on Greene have during the past week, seen a deepening of our national trauma, as we give thanks to living in a community that has as it's motto, "One Human Family". The unconscionable death of George Floyd and others continue and amplify a long history of racism, injustice, inequality, and violence. This comes at a moment when the global pandemic is having a particularly devastating impact on communities of color. We condemn bigotry, police brutality, and the senseless loss of life, and we stand together with the Bahama Village community and all those searching for a more peaceful, safe, just, and equitable world, all over the planet. Yesterday, we had a peaceful march here in Key West which included the Chief of Police Sean Brandenburg and Sheriff Ramsay.

The collective anger, protests, and demands for change at this critical moment draw on legacies rooted in the long history of the fight against racism in our city and nation. We believe in the culture and history of Key West which has, for over 150 years been a safe haven and believed in "One Race, the Human Race" Mario Sanchez's philosophy. We commit to continuing to share stories of Key West's history of diversity, struggle, resilience, and reinvention that we have been known for. We likewise commit to fighting discrimination, promoting inclusion, equity, and accessibility within our own gallery and community, and striving to contribute to a better future for all Key Westers.

Fins Up!

The 36th Annual Underwater Music Festival

Have you ever raved to an Underwater Concert before? Well, now's your chance during the 36th Annual Underwater Music Festival.

This quirky concert, set for Saturday, July11 from 10am - 2pm, takes place at Looe Key Reef, an area of the Florida Keys National Marine Sanctuary approximately six miles south of Big Pine Key.

Imagine floating among mystical mermaids and costumed musicians playing artist-sculpted mock instruments ranging from a "mantalin" and "sea-phan flute" to a "trom-bonefish" and "fluke-a-lele."

It truly is an underwater concert that will blow your fins off!

The festivities kick off with an opening reception at 6 pm on Friday, July 10 at Kiki's Sandbar at MM 29 Gulfside on Little Torch Key. Come in costume and enjoy scrummy appetizers, tropical libations, and learn some fascinating info about our precious reefs.

On Saturday, July11, put on your favorite costume, grab your fins and hit the wa-ter to revel in this unique ocean concert staged by Keys radio station, WWUS 104.1 FM. The station broadcasts its hit list underwater via Lubell Laboratory speakers suspended under boats positioned above the reef.

It's a lot of fun, but on a more serious note, the concert also promotes preserving the Keys' unique coral reef ecosystem by incorporating diver awareness an-nouncements that offer tips on ways to enjoy the reef while minimizing environmen-tal impacts.

Many divers and snorkelers launch their boats from public ramps and marinas in the area but you can also reserve space on boats run by Lower Keys dive operators who have their own onboard costume parties.

Randy Roberts

Don't let his boyish good looks fool you.

There's more than meets the eye once Randy Roberts enters his "Transformation Station."

With a flick of his eyebrow pencil, a pinch of blush and the trace of his lip liner, Roberts' "inner woman" magically comes to life.

The spotlight flashes, the curtain rises and onto the stage sashays "Consuela," a sassy Latin Showgirl with a thick Spanish accent and a penchant for high drama, who opens Roberts' one (wo)man show.

But Consuela isn't the only lovely lady in Robert's bag of female illusion.

The renowned showman embodies a plethora of personalities and a roster of famous ladies. His uncanny impersonations of Mae West, Joan Crawford, Carol Channing, Ann Miller and Phyllis Diller (an act which landed him on "The Jenny Jones Show" with the real Phyllis Diller), along with a bevy of original ladies is truly a sight to behold.

You can catch his all live tribute to some of the world's most beloved performers at "Randy Roberts Live!" at Key West's famous La Te Da Cabaret. For current performance dates hit up lateda.com.

FYI: Randy Roberts is also headlining this year's 35th Annual Headdress Ball on Thursday, October 26 at Key West's new Amphitheater at the Truman Waterfront Park. Tickets at keystix.com.

Fly Like Iron Man!

High - Octane Fun At Barefoot Billy's

You don't have to be a Marvel superhero to fly like Iron Man. Just strap yourself onto a Flyboard from Barefoot Billy's in Key West and the sky's the limit.

Even if you're a Flyboard newbie, you'll be soaring through the air no time. This ingenious and deceptively simple device enables you to fly up to 30' - 40' in the air or leap headfirst through the waves like a human dolphin.

Think of this adrenaline-pumping X-sport as "wake boarding on steroids."

But that's not all that thrill seekers can experience at Barefoot Billy's. It's all about how fast you want to go.

Looking to zip around the island going up to 40mph? Then opt for a high-octane jet ski rental or Billy's original two hour, 28 mile guided jet ski tour where you can zoom from the Atlantic to the Gulf and stop at lots of fun places along the way.

Too fast? Ok, then maybe the Ocean Discovery Tour with clear bottom kayaks and paddle boards, a Dolphin Watch & Snorkeling Tour to Key West's Back Country or the Sunset Harbor Cruise aboard a 45' power catamaran, might be just up your alley.

If sailing's your gig, catch the island Tradewinds and glide along the Key's pristine waters from one of Barefoot Billy's Hobie Cats.

But top-notch toys for water play aren't Barefoot Billy's only gig. In addition to all the cool water sports rentals, he can also hook you up with bicycles and scooters for getting around the island.

FYI: If you book direct online, you can save yourself 10% on any of Barefoot Billy's special tours. Just call 305-900-3088 or hit up barefootbillys.com and use coupon code "BAEREFOOT".

Barefoot Billy's is open daily from 8am - 10pm with two convenient locations: Casa Marina Resort at the corner of Seminole and Alberta Streets; and the Reach Resort at the corner of Vernon and Waddell Streets. Have fun and stay safe!

Hoist The Sails!

Sunset Sail Key West Is The Real Deal

Capt. Seth Salzman

Key West: With his tousled blonde locks blowing in the breeze and a devilish twinkle in his eye, Capt. Seth Salzmann takes to the helm and slips out into the harbor.

Sunset Sail Key West - his spirited fleet of authentic sailing vessels is his pride and joy, but today he commands his beloved "When And If." Designed to sail around the world, this luxury John Alden racing schooner was originally commissioned by General George Patton in 1939.

At over 63' and with 1,700 square feet of canvas, the "When And If" is a sight to behold and can accommodate up to 28 passengers.

When he's not burying the rail on the When And If, or setting sail for parts unknown, Capt. Seth and his gregarious crew are thrilling guests on one of their other impressive sailing schooners like the versatile 33' custom sloop, "High Tide." With a ten passenger capacity, the High Tide, is an ideal boat for exploring Key West's back country or for chartering your own private sunset sail.

For an even more intimate trip, the 32' "Free Spirit," a Lazy Jack Schooner that accommodates up to six guests, is great for overnight sailing adventures to some of the coolest hideaways around the island.

At 41', "Conch West," a blue water cruising ketch, offers day trips for up to 6 people as well as overnight, secluded island exploration charters. Capt. Seth and his Sunset Sail Key West crew can whisk you away for variety of daily trips, as well, including Sunrise and Day Sails, Sunset and Starlight Sails and Snorkel Sails to the reef, coral gardens and ship wrecks.

Whatever trip or boat you decide on, get ready for real deal. Because as soon as you pull out of the harbor, the sails go up and the engines go off so you get an authentic sailing experience every time.

Fresh Off the Boat –

The Fish House Restaurant & Seafood Market

Ask any local in the Upper Keys where to eat, and dollars to donuts, The Fish House will be at the top of the list.

Featured on the "Food Network" and "Good Morning America," The Fish House has been a Key Largo landmark for over 30 years. Owner CJ Berk, and her late partner Doug Prew, opened the rough hewn roadside restaurant in 1987 just as the Conch Republic was being born.

"The late 1980s were the tail end of the Wild West here in the Keys," Doug once recalled. "We used to play touch football on US 1. We could play half a game of football before seeing a car. And no one was here in May or September."

But those early days did not deter CJ and Doug. Even back then, they knew that the key to terrific seafood lies in its freshness and so they made "fresh off the boat" fish their trademark. "From our fishermen to you!" became their official slogan but more than that, it became their mission and mantra for the decades that followed.

Today, local fisherman still bring their daily catches — 3,000 to 4,000 pounds a week of whole yellowtail snapper, mahi-mahi, grouper, Florida lobster, and stone crab — to the back door of The Fish House where it's filleted on premises.

Many of the fish dishes on the menu are prepared "island style" and they are all excellent. Topping the list is the homemade chowder, smoked fish dip and "Today's Catch Specialty Preparations" which include the award-winning Matecumbe Style (topped with fresh tomatoes, shallots, fresh basil, capers, olive oil and lemon, then baked); Black & Blue (baked with blue cheese crumbles and finished with a cream sauce of bleu cheese, garlic, blackening seasoning and white wine); or Pan Sautéed (dusted with flour, dipped in egg wash and sautéed with butter, lemon and sherry).

And that's just the beginning.

There's also a plethora of other seafood dishes to choose from: fried seafood platters, shrimp and scallops, whole yellowtail snapper, king crab, crab cakes, Florida lobster…the list goes on and on.

And yes, even though it's a "Fish House" you can still get Black Angus steak, baby back ribs, grilled chicken and lots of different pastas.

BTW: Save room for dessert because their house made award-winning Key Lime Pie, topped with a tower of meringue is as good as it gets. The Fish House makes them daily and sells about 400 pies a week.

This landmark eatery is open daily from 11am-10pm. Find it at 102401 Overseas Hwy (MM 102.4 Oceanside) in Key Largo, FL 33037. Info: 305-451-4665; fishhouse.com.

OK, so here you are, ready to snatch up your own little piece of Paradise. But here's the big question: "Which Key is right for you?"

Our 125 mile-long subtropical island chain consists of more than 1700 islands, many of which offer unique opportunities for investing in real estate.

Known as "The Dive Capital Of The World," Key Largo is the first and northernmost Key of the Florida Keys and although it's only about an hour's drive from South Florida's two major airports, this funky spot is a world away and a perfect Key to hang your flip flops.

Just south of Key Largo is Islamorada, aka "The Sportfishing Capital of The World" where backcountry sport fishing and saltwater fly fishing were pioneered. Quiet and upscale, it's also one of the Keys' top dining destinations.

Often referred to as "The Keys Boating & Family Destination," Marathon, boasts homey resorts, luxury accommodations, marinas and the conveniences of a modern community, airport, golf course and plenty of shops while retaining the charm of its roots as a 19th-century fishing village.

Big Pine & The Lower Keys is the Keys' "Eco-Destination" and home to two national wildlife refuges including the National Key Deer Rescue - a safe haven for the miniature Key deer. Things are very laid-back here and it's a perfect place to live the "Old Keys" lifestyle.

Located closer to Cuba than to Miami, Key West is Florida's irreverent southernmost subtropical paradise where Gingerbread mansions share palm-studded streets with tin-roofed "Conch" houses. It's unique confluence of history, climate, natural beauty, cultural diversity, architecture and unabashed romantic appeal makes it a colorful place to set down roots.
